

Become a community leader in agriculture!

Representative Elections Nomination Deadline - September 19

APAS Representatives play an important role in bringing forward the concerns of agricultural producers in their Rural Municipalities and helping to shape future agricultural policies.

APAS is Saskatchewan's only democratically elected, producer-run, grassroots, general farm organization.

Since 2000, APAS has been the voice of the province's producers, working to address important policy issues including rail transportation, carbon levy, water policy, and proposed small business tax changes.
